Thursday Night Playlist

Please choose a song for Thursday night dinner :)

That is what deconstruction is made of.

That is what deconstruction is made of: the tension between the preservation of something that has been given to us, and the time something absolutely new... absolutely new, and a break.

Care, emotions and feminism: what can they tell us about EAP?

Raynor, Joanne ...
ha-ha, maybe we can have room 101!

Why do we do what we do? Why do we keep doing it? And what are we going to do about it?

Now is a good time to give EAP a kick up the proverbial!

Is it a crime to want to make things happen? (New Model Army, 1984).

FUN STUFF

(but not pingpong)

What we (Nigel, Joanne and Sanchia) talked about re. fun stuff for the evening meals:

- we thought it would be good to have "opt-in" activities, such as
 - fairground games eg beanbag tossing, coconut shy, quoits, hoopla, waterless hookaduck? at the edges the room
 - H&S allow
 - raffle with possible prizes from sponsors?
 - on table games such as taboo or pictictionary (EAP THEMED)
 - a quiz style "quiz" that is conference related.
 - scavenger hunt based on conference, eg. find two people who spoke in room S0.20 today
 - conversation starters, eg. find the person who travelled furthest
- we would like the playlist idea we talked about earlier (ppl choose a song to add to the playlist) and we can have this as music

Hand-drawn crown and 'to do' list on lined paper.

- * SJH to book rooms w/ conference
- * NP to meet with volunteers re v
- * ALL to agree on menu
- * GM to ...
- * SR to make welcome packet
- * OR to meet with IT/AV re lecture capture logistics

It was a great opportunity for us to host a conference. I had never even been to a conference before, so I had no idea what to expect.

So, this is not a call for papers, it is a call for write-ups. As such we would not like abstracts, but a flavour of how your write-up will be written and what it will cover.

Dear colleagues,

As the EAP team here at Warwick intend to paint cupboards, lay a path at the allotment, watch a roller derby game, take the dogs on a long walk, and go to a gig this weekend, we will not in all honesty be looking at the proposals for the conference. So why not take the weekend to get that proposal in if you need to, then we can spend next weekend reading them all 😊

Room 101

53 misconceptions outside EAP of what it actually is

30 being asked to "teach them English"

45 enforced 0-hours and temp contracts

Dear Conference Attendee,
You know what is in Room 101. Everyone knows what is in Room 101.
Kind regards,
The Ministry of BALEAP 2023

In this session, you are cordially invited to banish a concept of your choice into oblivion. In the style of the popular TV show Room 101, which in turn is based on Orwell's Nineteen-Eighty Four, we will discuss the things that we cannot bear about EAP – whether related to theory, practice, the industry or something else. What about EAP brings you to breaking point? Community Open Sessions are built entirely around audience contributions, so please come prepared with an idea to discuss. All contributions – no matter how light-hearted or serious – are welcome!

It was great to see the conference go so well. People seemed to enjoy being able to meet people "in real life" after having only previously met online. The thing I most enjoyed was hearing what other people are doing in their teaching.
